

Election to the Board of Trustees : Nomination Form

The Board of Trustees that runs The Psychologists Protection Society Trust is made up of current members from the roll of The Psychologists Protection Society Trust, professionals and students from the fields of the talking and listening therapies. To stand for election you need to be backed by TWO other members from the roll of The Psychologists Protection Society Trust.

As a Board Member you will bring your knowledge and professional experience to assist members who are finding themselves in difficulties. You will not usually be expected to attend more than two meetings a year including the AGM. Further meetings are held carried out by a monthly Telephone Conference and requests for assistance are reviewed and discussed using a secure online environment at times to suit you.

Trustees work in a voluntary unpaid capacity, however approved expenses whilst carrying out the duties of the Trust will be reimbursed. Trustees are directors of The Psychologists Protection Society Trust, a company limited by guarantee, and take on the responsibilities of company directors for the financial well being of the company. For further information read "Notes to Accompany Nomination Form for a Trustee/Director".
